

ANNOUNCEMENT

Brian Berg Appointed Business Development Representative

Squamish, BC, September 1, 2016 - Squamish Terminals is pleased to announce the appointment of Brian Berg in the role of Business Development Representative, effective Tuesday, September 6th.

Brian has over 30 years of commercial and operational experience in the marine industry from the perspective of a major shipper, as well as an ocean carrier. Most recently, Brian was General Manager at Gearbulk Shipping Canada, and also held similar positions at Seaboard, Saga and Canfor over the years.

Brian's role will be to support Squamish Terminals by creating and implementing business development strategies that maximize the utilization of its physical capacity, and promote the growth and diversification of inbound and outbound cargo volumes through the Terminal.

We welcome Brian Berg and wish him much success in his new role. We are extremely pleased to have an experienced professional supporting our existing team and our business development activities; continually striving to provide exceptional supply chain solutions and customer service. Brian can be reached at commercial@sqterminals.com.

Squamish Terminals is a leading break-bulk terminal located at the north end of Howe Sound – just 32 nautical miles north of the Port of Vancouver. With an intermodal transportation infrastructure (including access to deep water, rail and highway), 2 berths, 3 warehouses, extensive laydown area, specialized handling equipment and an experienced team, Squamish Terminals efficiently handles forestry, steel and special project cargo bound for North America and around the world.

For more information, please contact:

Kim Stegeman-Lowe

President, Squamish Terminals

kim_stegeman@sqterminals.com