Arrival of VANOC Workforce Cruise Ship

Squamish, BC, January 19, 2010 – Squamish Terminals is pleased to announce that the cruise ship accommodating VANOC workforce, the Mona Lisa, is scheduled to arrive at Squamish Terminals on Tuesday, January 26 at approximately 8am. The best location for media to capture the arrival of the Mona Lisa is the Squamish Oceanfront (property located east of Squamish Terminals). Please note that the arrival date and time is subject to change and updates will be provided at www.squamishterminals.com.

The Mona Lisa will be docked at the Terminal from about January 26 to March 23, 2010, and will temporarily house as many as 1,100 workforce from Canada and around the world. In keeping with VANOC's commitment to sustainability, VANOC workers will be transported on buses to and from the Terminal to their venue shuttles.

Squamish Terminals is part of Squamish's 2010 legacy by supporting local economic opportunities, and providing one part of the solution for VANOC's workforce accommodation needs. For nearly two months, the Terminal will amend its industrial operations and dedicate one of its two berths to the Mona Lisa. The Terminal will continue to provide Terminal services to its customers by using its second berth.
